Satyagraha learned in Africa was well used in India. Explain (150 words)

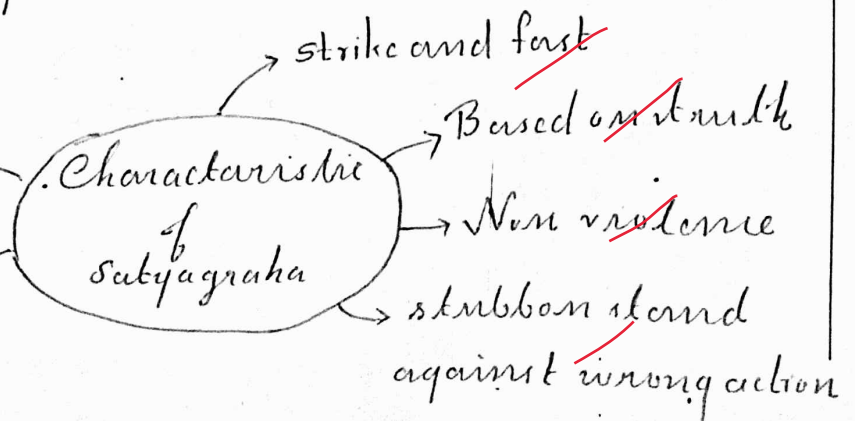

Mahatma Gandhi, the man who believed and proved us that "truth alone can conquer" used satyagraha as a most powerful weapon throughout his life. He used it as a perpetual law against anything repugnant to soul. This tool was experienced in South Africa for first time to improve the oppressed conditions of Indians over there and its victorious impact and application of same in India proved its universality.

Gandhi revolted against this and lead to rise of satyagraha
